

Our New Price Regulator

All the Outing You Want

10 CTS. YARD

THE BATTERY

Winnsboro,

South Carolina

LOCALS

Miss Margaret Neil Social Editor.

Miss Alice Walker spent Thursday in Columbia.

Dr. C. S. McCants has returned from New York City.

F. A. DesPortes spent a few days in Charlotte last week.

J. L. Kennerly spent the week-end here with his family.

Dr. R. G. Hamilton spent several days in Union this week.

Miss Alethea Mayes spent the week-end at her home here.

Miss Bessie Chalmers spent the week-end at her home in Charlotte.

Mrs. Horace Traylor and son returned Tuesday from Spartanburg.

Miss Emmie Hicks, of Greenville, spent several days in town last week.

and Mrs. D. V. Walker, Jr., returned from Rock Hill on Monday.

Misses Isabel and Margaret Hoy spent part of last week in Columbia.

Mrs. Joseph Foard, of Baltimore, spent part of this week with Mrs. T. H. Ketchin.

Mrs. Sam Jordan, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harden.

J. H. Boulware returned to the Charleston Medical College on Monday.

Miss Hazel Crowson, of Winthrop College spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. Horace Traylor returned Tuesday from a deer hunt in the lower part of the State.

Mr. C. L. Smith returned home last week after spending several months in Asheville.

Mrs. A. E. Davis, Jr., and little daughter are visiting Mrs. M. L. in Concord, N. C.

Ormsby Bourke returned on Saluda on Tuesday and is the sister of her sister, Mrs. J. L. Ken-

Miss Maggie Aiken has returned from a visit to Mrs. Pressley Burk-meyer in Hendersonville.

Miss Kathleen Willingham, of the Chicora College for Women, Columbia, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Caldwell and little Miss Catherine Caldwell spent part of this week in Charlotte.

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Lindsay and children, and Miss Mayme Burley spent Sunday in Camden.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Workman and little daughter, of Raleigh, N. C., spent last week with Mrs. G. G. Hayes.

Misses Clara Hammond and Virginia Shanklin, of Winthrop College, spent the week-end with Miss Priscilla Ketchin.

Mrs. W. D. Brunson, of Darlington, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Peyton, has returned home.

Misses Gladys Burley, Mary Douglas and Agnes Macfie, of Winthrop College, spent part of this week at home.

Miss Bessie McMaster, of Columbia, and Dr. J. G. McMaster, of Florence, spent the week-end with their sister, Mrs. T. H. Ketchin.

Mrs. Lou P. McMaster has returned from her summer home at Montreat, and is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. H. Ketchin.

The ladies of the town meet their friends at The Tea Room every afternoon.

THE MUSIC CLUB.

Miss Alice Doty was hostess to the Music Club on Friday afternoon. The roll call was answered with current events in the music world. An interesting paper on Cadman was read by Miss Lucy Doty. Mrs. W. M. Wolling sang a solo. Miss Beck Jennings and Mrs. C. S. McCants joined the Club at this meeting. A salad course with iced tea was served.

METHODIST CHURCH READY FOR SERVICES SUNDAY.

Services at the regular hours at Methodist church Sunday morning. Rev. Geo. C. Leonard, presiding elder, will preach at 11:00 and will hold the 4th quarterly conference immediately after service. Public cordially invited.

WINNSBORO MILL THEATRE.

Saturday, October 15.—Viola Dana in "Cinderella's Twin." This is a late Metro release.

Also Pathe News, No. 74. Tuesday, October 18.—The 7th, 8th and 9th episodes of the mystery serial "Screaming Shadow."

Thursday, October 20.—Harry Carey in "If Only Jim." A picture full of pep and heart interest.

THE CULTUS CLUB.

The Cultus Club held its first meeting since the summer recess on Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. R. C. Gooding. The roll call was answered by giving the name of one's favorite poet. The program was as follows: Sketch of the Life of Thomas Moore, by Miss Nellie Pearson; Poem of Moore's, by Mrs. T. H. Ketchin; Literary Notes, by Miss Marie McCants; People in the Public Eye, by Mrs. J. H. Cathcart. A salad course, with coffee, was served.

COMMUNITY HOUSE PROGRAM.

Friday night, October 14.—We have at last gotten "The Kentuckian." This picture shows the old clan fighting spirit that made Kentucky the noted state that it is. No one in this town should allow themselves to miss this special picture.

Monday night, October 17.—Viola Dana in "Cinderella Times." A wonderful picture. Also a two-reel comedy, "A Seaside Siren. Remember Monday night.

Wednesday night, October 19.—Mary Miles Minter in "Don't Call Me Little Girl."

Remember our show nights are Monday Wednesday and Friday. Coming October 28, "Inside the Cup." Read the book and see the play.

HORNE BRO'S.

The Home of
All-Leather Shoes

For Men, Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children

Red Goose Shoes, the kind that wears the Boys and Girls

It takes Leather to stand the Weather

Good shoes at low prices

Try us one time

Horne Brothers
Winnsboro, South Carolina